223 Plan on the pursuit of particular investment strategies, or the selection or termination of investment

254 identity of the donor, unless the donor has requested anonymity in connection with or as a condition of 255 making a pledge or donation. The exclusion provided by this subdivision shall not apply to protect from 256 disclosure (i) the identities of sponsors providing grants to or contracting with the foundation for the 257 performance of services or other work or (ii) the terms and conditions of such grants or contracts.

258 29. Information prepared for and utilized by the Commonwealth's Attorneys' Services Council in 259 the training of state prosecutors or law-enforcement personnel, where such information is not otherwise 260 available to the public and the disclosure of such information would reveal confidential strategies, 261 methods, or procedures to be employed in law-enforcement activities or materials created for the 262 investigation and prosecution of a criminal case.

267 the information from mandatory disclosure.

269 program related to an evaluation of any individual justice or judge made confidential by § 17.1-100.

276 the Virginia Economic Development Partnership Authority pursuant to § 2.2-2237.1 regarding target 277 companies, specific allocation of resources and staff for marketing activities, and specific marketing 278 activities that would reveal to the Commonwealth's competitors for economic development projects the 279 strategies intended to be deployed by the Commonwealth, thereby adversely affecting the financial interest
280 of the Commonwealth. The executive summaries of the strategic plan, marketing plan, and operational 281 plan shall not be redacted or withheld pursuant to this subdivision.

282 § 2.2-3713. Proceedings for enforcement of chapter.

283 A. Any person, including the attorney for the Commonwealth acting in his official or individual 284 capacity, denied the rights and privileges conferred by this chapter may proceed to enforce such rights and 285 privileges by filing a petition for mandamus or injunction, supported by an affidavit showing good cause.
286 Such petition may be brought in the name of the person notwithstanding that a request for public records
287 was made by the person's attorney in his representative capacity. Venue for the petition shall be addressed 288 as follows:

289 1. In a case involving a local public body, to the general district court or circuit court of the county
290 or city from which the public body has been elected or appointed to serve and in which such rights and 291 privileges were so denied;

292 2. In a case involving a regional public body, to the general district or circuit court of the county 293 or city where the principal business office of such body is located; and

294 3. In a case involving a board, bureau, commission, authority, district, institution, or agency of the 295 state government, including a public institution of higher education, or a standing or other committee of 296 the General Assembly, to the general district court or the circuit court of the residence of the aggrieved
297 party or of the City of Richmond.

298 B. In any action brought before a general district court, a corporate petitioner may appear through 299 its officer, director or managing agent without the assistance of counsel, notwithstanding any provision of 300 law or Rule of the Supreme Court of Virginia to the contrary.

301 C. Notwithstanding the provisions of § 8.01-644, the petition for mandamus or injunction shall be 302 heard within seven days of the date when the same is made, provided the party against whom the petition 303 is brought has received a copy of the petition at least three working days prior to filing. The hearing on 304 any petition made outside of the regular terms of the circuit court of a locality that is included in a judicial 305 circuit with another locality or localities shall be given precedence on the docket of such court over all 306 cases that are not otherwise given precedence by law.

307 D. The petition shall allege with reasonable specificity the circumstances of the denial of the rights
308 and privileges conferred by this chapter. A single instance of denial of the rights and privileges conferred 309 by this chapter shall be sufficient to invoke the remedies granted herein. If the court finds the denial to be 310 in violation of the provisions of this chapter, the petitioner shall be entitled to recover reasonable costs;
311 ~~including costs and reasonable fees for expert witnesses;~~ and ~~attorneys' attorney~~ fees from the public body,
312 such costs including costs and reasonable fees for expert witnesses. if the petitioner substantially prevails
313 on the merits of the case, unless special circumstances would make an award unjust. In making this 314 determination, a court may consider, among other things, the reliance of a public body on an opinion of 315 the Attorney General or a decision of a court that substantially supports the public body's position.

316 E. In any action to enforce the provisions of this chapter, the public body shall bear the burden of 317 proof to establish an exclusion by a preponderance of the evidence. No court shall be required to accord
318 any weight to the determination of a public body as to whether an exclusion applies. Any failure by a

319 public body to follow the procedures established by this chapter shall be presumed to be a violation of this 320 chapter.

321 F. Failure by any person to request and receive notice of the time and place of meetings as provided 322 in § 2.2-3707 shall not preclude any person from enforcing his rights and privileges conferred by this 323 chapter.

324 G. The public body shall be a necessary party to any enforcement proceeding brought pursuant to 325 this section even though an officer, employee, or member may also be named in his official capacity.
