FOIA Policy

§ 2.2-3700

- All meetings of a public body are presumed open unless a specific exemption applies.
- Liberal construction “to promote an increased awareness by all persons of governmental activities and afford every opportunity to citizens to witness the operations of government”
- Narrow construction of exemptions
- Not to be construed to discourage the free discussion by government officials or employees of public matters with the citizens of the Commonwealth

Meetings Issues Not Addressed in FOIA

- Definition of “quorum”
 - Generally, the ordinary meaning of “quorum” is a simple majority of the members
 - Sometimes particular bodies have charters, enabling statutes, or other requirements that change the usual meaning of “quorum” – for example, defining “quorum” as a certain minimum number of members or drawing distinctions between members who are elected as opposed to members who are appointed
- Parliamentary procedure & powers of a public body to control its meetings (examples: controlling who may speak at any given time, limiting public comment, determining which motions take precedence over others, etc.)

Definitions

§ 2.2-3701

- “Public body”
 - Traditional public bodies (state boards, local governing bodies, school boards, bureaus, commissions, districts, etc.)
 - “[O]ther organizations, corporations or agencies in the Commonwealth supported wholly or principally by public funds.”

 - Exception: gatherings of employees
 - Exception: gatherings where no part of the purpose of such gathering or attendance is the discussion or transaction of any public business, such gathering or attendance was not called or prearranged with any purpose of discussing or transacting any business of the public body, and no discussion or transaction of public business takes place among the members of the public body

Definitions

§ 2.2-3701

- Exception: public forum, informational gathering, candidate appearance, meeting of another public body, or debate, the purpose of which is to inform the electorate or to gather information from the public and not to transact public business or to hold discussions relating to the transaction of public business, where no discussion or transaction of public business takes place among the members of the public body, even though the performance of the members individually or collectively in the conduct of public business may be a topic of discussion, debate, or question presented by others
- For purposes of public meetings only, “public business” means “any activity a public body has undertaken or proposes to undertake on behalf of the people it represents.”

Electronic Meetings

§§ 2.2-3708.2 and 2.2-3708.3

- As of September 1, 2022, there are three general categories:
 - Remote participation: “participation by an individual member of a public body by electronic communication means in a public meeting where a quorum of the public body is otherwise physically assembled.”
 - All-virtual public meetings: “a public meeting (i) conducted by a public body, other than those excepted pursuant to subsection C of § 2.2-3708.3, using electronic communication means, (ii) during which all members of the public body who participate do so remotely rather than being assembled in one physical location, and (iii) to which public access is provided through electronic communication means.”
 - States of emergency declared by the Governor or the locality

Electronic Meetings

Remote participation (may be used by any public body) - § 2.2-3708.3

- Four allowed reasons for remote participation:
 - Temporary or permanent disability or other medical condition that prevents member's attendance
 - Medical condition of a family member that prevents member's attendance
 - Member's principal residence is more than 60 miles from the meeting location
 - Personal matter that prevents member's attendance
- All require a physical quorum and prior adoption of a participation policy
 - Exception: persons with disabilities and their caregivers who participate remotely are counted as if physically present for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum
- Remote location from which the member participates does not have to be open to the public
- Personal matters may be used twice per calendar year per member or 25 percent of the meetings of the public body rounded to the next whole number, whichever is greater

Electronic Meetings

All-virtual public meetings - § 2.2-3708.3

- May be used by any public body except “local governing bodies, local school boards, planning commissions, architectural review boards, zoning appeals boards, and boards with the authority to deny, revoke, or suspend a professional or occupational license”
- Requires prior adoption of a participation policy (but no quorum)
- Remote locations do not have to be open to the public unless 3 or more members are present at that location
- All-virtual public meetings may be used twice per calendar year or 50 percent of the meetings of the public body rounded to the next whole number, whichever is greater
- Additional procedural requirements

Electronic Meetings

Policy for remote participation and all-virtual public meetings - § 2.2-3708.3(D)

- Before using remote participation or all-virtual public meetings, the public body must adopt a policy on participation at least once annually that:
 - Is applied strictly and uniformly, without exception, to the entire membership and without regard to the identity of the member or the matters to be considered or voted upon
 - Describes the circumstances under which an all-virtual public meeting and remote participation will be allowed and the process the public body will use for making requests to use remote participation, approving or denying such requests, and creating a record of such requests
 - Fixes the number of times remote participation for personal matters or all-virtual public meetings can be used per calendar year, not to exceed the limitations set forth in FOIA
 - Does not prohibit or restrict any individual member of a public body who is participating in an all-virtual meeting or who is using remote participation from voting on matters before the public body

Electronic Meetings

During declared states of emergency (§ 2.2-3708.2 and State Budget)

- During a Governor-declared or local state of emergency:
 - Purpose: to provide for the continuity of operations of the public body or the discharge of its lawful purposes, duties, and responsibilities- § 2.2-3708.2 (version in FOIA last amended in 2022)
- During a Governor-declared state of emergency ONLY
 - Different procedural requirements and limitations – State Budget Item 4-0.01 (g) (version in the state budget originally added in 2020)
- Both may be used by any public body
- No requirement for a physical quorum or to have a policy in place

Electronic Meetings

- Members may monitor (listen/watch) even if they cannot participate
- Public & staff participation is always allowed – restrictions only apply to members
- Please see our Electronic Meetings Guide on the Reference Materials webpage for a more detailed discussion

FOIA & Social Media

- Because the definition of “public records” includes all types of records that are in the transaction of public business, various forms of social media may be public records
- Because any assemblage of three or more members (or a quorum of two) of a public body discussing or transacting public business simultaneously is a meeting subject to FOIA, social media may also be used to conduct meetings
- Please see our guide on FOIA & Social Media on the Reference Materials webpage for a more detailed discussion
